RACSB UPDATE

Ms. Jacque Kobuchi gave an update for the CIT Assessment center located at Mary Washington Hospital and noted that there were seventeen individuals who were assessed as of October 2022. Ms. Kobuchi stated that this is the lowest it has been due to workforce shortages. Also presented was the Rappahannock Regional Jail report and the diversion data for the first quarter of Fiscal Year 2023. There have been a total of fifty-seven assessments in the aforementioned period. Of those, twenty-three individuals met the criteria based on the assessment and agreed to services. Ten individuals were linked to housing services; ten individuals were linked to treatment programs; there were no individuals linked to benefits during this period. The Rappahannock Area CIT program held a 40-hour training in August with 21 participants.

MAGISTRATE UPDATE

Chief Rose mentioned the for first time in nine years he is fully staffed. Mr. Rose stated Virginia holds two state magistrate conferences each year, one of which has already happened in Newport News, VA. The second conference will take place in Harrisonburg, VA. Possible movement and changes were also mentioned that will be made on the bail check list.

DISTRICT 21 OVERVIEW

Mr. Simmons presented the attached report and stated that District 21 has six vacant Probation Officer positions.

During this time, the office is supervising 251 high level cases; 1,396 medium level cases; 195 low level cases; 255 cases pending intake, and 750 cases are being supervised via voice-verification. Gang/threat group members actively being supervised are 129. There are 177 registered sex offenders on some form of supervision, 11 of which are being monitored by GPS. In the last three months, there have been 285 major violation reports and 79 Presentence Investigation Reports have been submitted to local courts.

A total of 1,994 drug tests have been completed in the last three months.

Decision Points, Sex Offender Awareness Program (SOAP), sex offender treatment, sex offender treatment aftercare, and substance abuse treatment groups are offered in-house, though they are still temporarily suspended/modified because of COVID-19. Teletherapy is being conducted whenever possible, but in-person substance abuse treatment has resumed.

Overall, there are 2,564 individuals under probation or parole with the district, which makes the office one of the largest in the central region.
