RACSB UPDATE

Mr. Joe Wickens presented the RACSB report and the diversion data for the second quarter of Fiscal Year 2022. There have been a total of thirty-two assessments in the aforementioned period. Of those, sixteen individuals met the criteria based on the assessment and agreed to services. Ten individuals were linked to housing services; ten individuals were linked to treatment programs; there were no individuals linked to benefits during this period. Mr. Wickens also presented third quarter diversion data for Fiscal year 2022. There have been a total of thirty-three assessments in the aforementioned period. Workforce shortage issues, RACSB Opened a children's services clinic in Spotsylvania County. This new location allows the agency to provide behavioral healthcare for children and adolescents in a more private and child-friendly atmosphere. Co- response therapist will begin training and orientation with the Fredericksburg Police Department on September 9th.

MAGISTRATE UPDATE

Chief Rose introduced his guest, Robert Noote. He is the Magistrate regional supervisor for Region 6. Chief Rose stated that he is fully staffed.

DISTRICT 21 OVERVIEW

Mr. Ed Simmons introduced two new specialist positions. He also presented the attached report and stated that District 21 has six vacant Probation Officer positions.

During this time, the office is supervising 248 high level cases; 1,415 medium level cases; 151 low level cases; 278 cases pending intake, and 750 cases are being supervised via voice-verification. Gang/threat group members actively being supervised are 130. There are 175 registered sex offenders on some form of supervision, 16 of which are being monitored by GPS. In the last three months, there have been 285 major violation reports and 79 Presentence Investigation Reports have been submitted to local courts.

A total of 1,994 drug tests have been completed in the last three months.

Decision Points, Sex Offender Awareness Program (SOAP), sex offender treatment, sex offender treatment aftercare, and substance abuse treatment groups are offered in-house, though they are still temporarily suspended/modified because of COVID-19. Teletherapy is being conducted whenever possible, but in-person substance abuse treatment has resumed.

Overall, there are 2,583 individuals under probation or parole with the district, which makes the office one of the largest in the central region.

CCAP is actively recruiting. Mr. Simmons also mentioned relocation of the office due to District 21 outgrowing the building.
